

solidar

BEHIND NATIONALISM

The upcoming European elections in May 2019 will determine the future of the European Union, the ambition of this exciting and often contested project. Against the backdrop of a general frustration that the EU is not delivering on the social dimension, that too often European solutions are not reached, authoritarian nationalists and populists will try to have the opinion leadership in the election campaign.

EU Budget

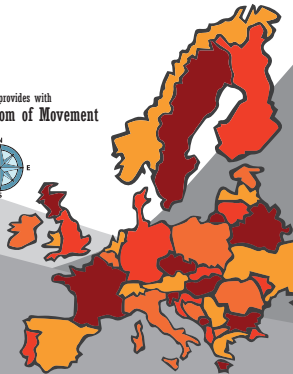

Receive more than then contribute

EU SOLIDARITY Fund

5 billion € to 24 Member States (MS)

The EU provides with Freedom of Movement

Erasmus+

million students, teachers and workers

European Social Fund

Social inclusion and job qualification 43,000,000,000€

Youth Guarantee

million young people benefited from employment, education and apprenticeship